The questions below, from the previous version of the agenda, will not be discussed at the May 27th Task Force meeting. However, these questions will be considered by the Task Force later in the coming months, as we proceed with the development of land use alternatives.

1. What implications do the employment and population projections raise for the development of Land Use Alternatives?
 - Housing density?
 - Housing for different household types (seniors, workers, families, other)?
 - Workplace types (manufacturing, R&D, Office, other)?
 - Retail development (business districts, neighborhood centers, mixed use/ground floor, large format, other)?
 - Healthcare facilities (hospitals, clinics, other)?
 - Places of Worship?
 - Other uses?
2. What implications do the employment and population projections raise for the development of Land Use Alternatives?
 - Provision of infrastructure (streets, storm/sanitary sewer, waste treatment, other)?
 - Provision of services (parks, libraries, public safety, other)?
 - Transportation mobility (transit, bicycle, pedestrian, other)?
 - Environmental resources (water supply/quality, habitat, open space, energy, other)?
 - Schools?
 - Other (historic resources, arts/culture)?
